GOLDEN - a ritual for men

Massage cosmetics from the Tytan line are aimed at men. The scent and the selection of active ingredients take care of the regeneration of men's skin. Vegetable oils from: sesame seed, grape seed, sweet almond and rapeseed easily nourish and maintain the skin's moisture level for a long time. The massage improves circulation and relieves muscle tension.

The mineral titanium dioxide contained in the cosmetics naturally provides strong sun protection, but also stabilises the effect of the valuable ingredients contained in the vegetable oils. It influences their better absorption.

The aroma of the products, based on earth and wood notes, is wonderfully relaxing and contributes to the well-being of every man. Influences self-confidence and vitality

ANTI-CELLULITE SPA-ABYSS

The Spa-Abyss anti-cellulite program is a modern slimming treatment based on a thermoactive effect. This means that during the treatment we raise the body temperature and the applied active ingredients (e.g. spongilla) penetrate deeply into the skin. The preparations are based on only natural ingredients, which is why they are not only effective, but also completely safe.

The advantage of the treatment is the quickly visible effects, often after the first treatment. It is recommended to perform 4-6 treatments in a series, which can be performed at short intervals every 2-3 days. For this reason, the Thermoactive Anti-Cellulite Treatment is able to reduce cellulite even in 2 weeks. Therefore, it is the best option when we have little time left, e.g. before vacation.

Effects of the treatment:

- reduction of the thickness and density of subcutaneous fat by activating the lipolysis process
- help in smoothing the skin
- reducing the dimensions of problematic body parts
- removal of local swellings
- lymphatic and venous drainage
- activation of local microcirculation
- increase in skin elasticity

Duration: depends on the number of parts performed: from 20 minutes to about 1 hour.

CHOCOLATE DELIGHT

Chocolate not only tastes wonderful, it is also an excellent cosmetic product for massage. Chocolate masks containing trace elements, vitamins B, E and K refresh and tone the skin. A massage on chocolate products stimulates endorphins - the hormones of happiness, calms the nervous system, stimulates blood circulation, relaxes tense muscles, reduces anxiety, tension and improves mood. A body that releases negative emotions eliminates fatigue.

Massage with chocolate products is indicated even for sensitive skins. The ingredients in these procedures restore the right level of hydration, stimulate cell regeneration which results in better elasticity and a reduction in wrinkles.

The mask contains natural UV filters and exfoliating elements - ground cocoa beans, which gently release the skin from dead skin cells during the massage.

BLACK PERL

Black Pearl are massage products enriched with underwater minerals and precious pearl powder.

The basis of the cosmetics are sesame and sweet almond oils, enriched with pearl ingredients that protect the skin from environmental factors - natural UV filters, valuable unsaturated fatty acids and moisturising ingredients.

Pearl powder is obtained from authentic pearls which, after selection and disinfection, are then crushed and micronised into a fine, fine powder. It is an ingredient with a rich tradition in medicine and skin care, having been used for centuries in Asian countries, mainly China and Japan. Asian women used pearl powder for skin care both externally on the skin and taken internally as a supplement. It was credited with anti-wrinkle, healing, skin tone-enhancing and sun-protective properties.

The Black Pearl treatment moisturises and soothes dehydrated and tired skin and restores skin elasticity.

The pearly glow that is left on the body reflects light which results in the reduction of skin imperfections.

GOLD OF NATURE

Sea-buckthorn treatment with a refreshing aroma, where the scent of berries harmonises with the energetic nature of the plant. The aroma of the treatment alone makes you inhale the vitaminised power of sea buckthorn.

The sea-buckthorn berry extract contained in the cosmetics contains the happiness hormone serotonin, which improves mood and tones the body. Sea-buckthorn berries are true storehouses of vitamins, antioxidants and minerals. Organic acids and a rich content of vitamins C, K, E, B will strengthen the skin. The rich content of natural carotenes will give the skin a golden colour and help achieve a healthy tan. It is recommended in products used on skin with dermatological problems such as burns, scalds, frostbite, eczema or allergies. It rebuilds the barrier function of the skin. It is one of the few oils to contain omega 7 acids. Omega 7 is a natural component of the skin's lipids, which accelerates the regeneration and healing of wounds.

The products contain fruit pulp and natural oils - preserving their wonderful qualities and ingredients in a gentle manufacturing process.

DEEP PHYTO PEELING

Innovative new-generation peeling alternative to medical peels.

What is the secret? In the perfect synergy of acids and herbs.

It is the only treatment available in the world that combines the healing properties of herbs (e.g. mint, calendula, iris) with the exfoliating properties of acids (salicylic, glycolic, AHA).

Deep phyto peeling can be performed on those struggling with:

- hyperpigmentation
- scars
- acne
- stretch marks
- wrinkles

This is one of the few therapies that can be used on active acne, even in people under the age of 18. The peel can be used as an intensive 3-day treatment or as a one-off maintenance treatment. Importantly, the treatment is performed on the entire body.

Exfoliation occurs after the treatment, which leads to accelerated cell renewal and significantly stimulates collagen production.

Duration: 75-90 minutes
