HAWAIIAN LOMI LOMI MASSAGE

Lomi Lomi is a type of massage originating in the Hawaiian Islands, which was originally a ritual to restore internal balance. Its name means kneading, pressing and also a subtle touch. Hawaiians believe that the more energy they give off during a massage, the more they will get.

It is a comprehensive body massage designed to relieve mental tensions and muscle tension in a unique way. The massage is distinguished by the use of a large part of the forearms to make long, pleasant movements, as well as passive movement of the client's limbs. The movements performed by the masseur during the Lomi Lomi massage must be smooth, simple and well matched to the body's reaction.

Massage allows you to feel bliss, relaxation and contentment of soul and body. It improves blood circulation, helps to relax muscles and stimulates digestion. It is an ideal solution for people who live under high stress.

Indications:

- Muscle relaxation
- Improving blood circulation and metabolism
- Partial reduction of body fat
- Increasing the mobility and flexibility of joints
- Improvement of well-being on the energetic and emotional level

AROMATIC CANDLE MASSAGE

Candle massage is an extremely relaxing treatment. It combines the invaluable advantages of manual massage, aromatherapy and thermotherapy.

The massage uses a candle, made of 100% natural wax with essential oils, which, when ignited, turns into a warm, aromatic oil. The warmth of the candle warms up the body, relaxes the muscle tension, which in many cases also acts as a painblocker. Moreover, candle oil smoothes the skin and helps to rebuild its natural protective barrier. After the treatment, the skin is intensely moisturized, silky smooth, and the soy wax leaves a pleasant film on the skin.

Candle massage is an excellent treatment for people who are tired, stressed, depressed by the prevailing aura, and in need of deep relaxation.
